Let's talk numbers. Real claims, real savings.

If your organization only has a general liability policy, you may not be as covered as you think. Here's a real claim from one of our insureds to help explain why A&H coverage can be so valuable. It's a winning combination.

THE SITUATION

Hiking mishap

During a hike at camp, Max tried to climb a tree and took a pretty big fall. He ended up spraining his arm, and between the X rays and doctor visits, cost was well over $7,000. His parents' primary health insurance covered a portion of that, but the balance owed was still $3,300.

WITHOUT POMI

Without A&H, your organization could be on the hook for that $3,300 plus legal fees. That's the cost of a lifetime supply of marshmallows!

And chances are, your general liability coverage could increase too, costing even more money.

WITH POMI

With pomi's A&H coverage, the full amount was covered - all for a fraction of those hefty medical bills.

And since the policy not only covered Max but the entire camp, other potential accidents would be covered too. That's a lot of happy campers!
