Let's talk numbers. Real claims, real savings.

If your organization only has a general liability policy, you may not be as covered as you think. Here's a real claim from one of our insureds to help explain why A&H coverage is so valuable. It's a winning combination.

THE SITUATION

A real penalty kick

Jordan is an all star college soccer player who rolled his ankle after a game-winning free kick. Not only was he out the rest of the season, but he racked up medical bills over $20,000. After his primary health insurance, he was still left with $8,000 out of pocket costs.

WITHOUT POMI

Without A&H, an organization could be on the hook for that $8,000 plus legal fees!

Imagine how many new soccer balls that could be! And chances are, general liability coverage could increase too, costing even more money.

WITH POMI

With pomi's A&H coverage, the full amount was covered – all for a fraction of those hefty medical bills.

And since the policy not only covered Jordan but the entire team and coaches, other potential accidents would be covered too. Now, that's a score!
